DUNK OUT DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Chi Phi held their first philanthropy event, Dunk Out Domestic Violence, in October. Brothers volunteered to sit in a dunk tank while people could pay to try and dunk the brothers.

All Proceeds went to the women's shelter, CHOICES.

Grades

Chi Phi just got word before finals that they have the second highest GPA in the IFC! Go Chi Phi!

One Step Closer

After passing accreditation last semester for the first time since the Iota colony returned, Chi Phi became one step closer to chartering.

The men of Chi Phi have put forth their best efforts to make this fraternity one of the best on campus. This year, so much was accomplished. Chi Phi's first philanthropy event, Dunk Out Domestic Violence, was held. Chi Phi hosted a formal in Cincinnati, OH/Covington, KY. One big step left for the gentlemen: recruit, recruit, recruit.

A well planned recruitment process attracted 14 new members to Chi Phi. The fraternity almost doubled in size from this recruiting class.

Chi Phi is pleased to welcome the 14 new brothers: Richard Reis, Deondre Davis, Jeremy Noe, Mike Levanti, Charles Norris, Peter Mougey, David Galehouse, Brad Bohus, Sam Bechtol, Sam Reid, Mike Benson, Seth McConnell, Luke Porter, Rohit Shendge,

With these numbers, the Iota Colony is prepared to petition to charter!

THE CHI PHI HOUSE

Chi Phi is pleased to announce that there will be a Chi Phi house back on campus next year.

It will not be the original house on 19th and Indianola. It will be located just off Greek Row on 16th and Summit.

The house has 13 bedrooms but one will be used as a study room.

This is another great accomplishment for Iota. The men are working towards being a fully functioning fraternity at Ohio State and having a house will benefit from recruiting, to chapter meetings, and initiation.

Iota would love and appreciate any house donations the alumni is willing to provide (chairs, coaches, desks etc..). Contact Kuniega.2@osu.edu if interested.

BACK-TO-BACK VARIETY SHOW CHAMPS!

Chi Phi returned to the LC Pavilion during Greek Week 2014 to defend their Variety Show title. The Variety Show is the most anticipated event of Greek Week in which Fraternities and Sororities take part in a dance competition to crown the best of both the ladies and the men .

Chi Phi danced into the hearts of the audience once again, to win their second consecutive Variety Show championship. This year, Chi Phi chose the theme of 'James Bond.' Here is the link to watch this year's performance:

To the Alumni:

Chi Phi is almost back to full strength. The gentlemen that have helped restore the Iota chapter have worked very diligently but their efforts would be wasted, if it weren't for the continued support and assistance of our alumni. We cannot express how thankful we are for the continuous donations and especially the help we received to acquire our house for next year.

As we continue to build towards chartering (we are so close), we will continue to bring in quality men into a distinguished organization and build a better relationship with our alumni. Our alumni are responsible for the continued success in the past, present, and future. We love any interactions we can get with our alumni as they can lead us to be the better men we know we will be.

Again we can't thank all of you enough for the help you generously give. Please feel free to contact us or even stop by the Chi Phi house, we'd love to show all the brothers the new house in August.

To contact us you can reach our Zeta, Eran Hami at hami.2@osu.edu.

Thank You,
